

Heat Stroke Transfer of Care in EMS

Matthew Sholl, MD, MPH, FACEP

Key Points of the Presentation:

1. Geography and Make-Up of the Maine EMS System
2. Mechanism of Maine EMS Protocol Development
3. Current State of the Literature Surrounding Patient Transfers of Care
4. Virtues of Multi-Modal Mechanisms of Transfer of Care
5. Best Practices in Patient Transfer of Care

Presentation Objectives:

1. Attendees will be able to describe the Maine EMS system characteristics, including general geographic coverage and basic differences between EMS scopes of practice (Knowledge)
2. Attendees will be able to participate in the Maine EMS Protocol review process, if interested. (Synthesis)
3. Attendees will understand the importance of transfers of care in medicine. (Knowledge)
4. Attendees will be able to consider their own transfers of care to EMS and Emergency Medicine and in turn consider implementing best practices in transfers of care. (Evaluation and Apply)
5. Attendees will understand the value of pre-event communication with their partner EMS agencies and discuss routine communication practices. (Apply)